

Anna Elder Now Mrs. Labbe

MRS. RAYMOND LABBE
(Portrait by Seaman)

Anna May Elder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Elder, 914 Teri Ave., Torrance, and Lt. J/g Raymond L. Labbe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Labbe of North Hollywood, were united in marriage and received the Papal Blessing in a ceremony at the Catholic Church of the Nativity recently.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a full length gown of white peau de soie, fashioned with a detachable train. The gown was enhanced with appliques of lace and seed pearls. A small crown of seed pearls held her illusion veil and she carried a cascade of white roses, and Stephanotis encircling orchids.

The bridal entourage included Miss Jane Gould, maid of honor, and Misses Sue Jeschke and Chris Stiger, bridesmaids. They were gowned in red peau de soie and each carried a red and white bouquet.

Neil Labbe stood as his brother's best man, George Ahlers and Dick Cappola seated the 150 guests. Rev. William O'Toole officiated at the double ring ceremony. Servers were the bride's brothers, John Davies and Steven Elder.

As the couple left the church, the Arch of Swords was formed by Lt. Cmdr. John Burroughs, Lts. James Malkus, Rick Williams and Gary Lorentzen.

A reception was held at the YMCA. Following a honeymoon, the newlyweds are making their home in San Diego where Lt. Labbe is an instructor in Naval Law.

Mrs. Labbe is attending San Diego State College, student teaching and working on her masters degree. She received her BA from UCLA in January. Lt. Labbe earned his degree at Humboldt State College.

District Officers Preside

Officers of District 80, Order of the Eastern Star, filled the stations as the Torrance Chapter observed "District Night" on March 17, at the Masonic Temple.

Norah Planck, worthy matron of Carnation Chapter, and Alfred Howell, worthy patron of San Pedro Harbor Chapter, officiated as worthy matron and patron.

Ruth Hardin, matron of the Torrance OES, and Homer Morgan, worthy patron, were given special escort.

Vivian Cook, member of the Torrance chapter, a Deputy Grand Matron of District 80, welcomed guests and gave an inspiring message.

All worthy matrons and patrons were given escort. Helen Carpenter, chairman of the evening, presented ceramic gifts to all and St. Patrick corsages were given to all officers and special guests.

Following the meeting, a social hour was held in the dining room which was effectively decorated in the St. Patrick theme.
